

Brisbane City Squash Committee Meeting

Monday 21st June 2010

Present: Ross Brazier, Craig Simmich, Peter Smith, Kim Schramm

Apology: Susan Hird

Meeting commenced: 9.30am

Competitions:

Project 72 – A Monday or Wednesday night competition open to new players only. Initially an in-house type competition which would eventually move to 3 or 4 local clubs. Kim to put together the guidelines.

Friday night comp (Best of the Best): No advancement since last meeting, but Craig is continuing the follow up.

Umpiring Seminar: The committee feels that although unpopular with the players, and umpiring seminar is warranted. Incentives will be offered for attendance.

Discussion was held re score books. Some players still prefer the book system, while many others are fine with the tear off sheet.

Juniors:

Kim has started on a promotion brochure with themes aimed at students, teachers and parents.

Web Site:

Craig has started the 'Player Profiles' section that will be added to the web site.

The weekly prize draw of 2 movies tickets will commence on 5th July. All players you have been entered on Matrix that week will be eligible.

A newsletter will commence 5th July & posted on the web site.

Promotion:

Peter is working on trying to secure $50,000 to coordinate the management of blowup courts that can be taken to schools.

Meeting closed at 12.30pm